Heat Transfer

Some like it hot! This is where we apply a logo or design to product via a transfer and heat.

Even More In-House Capabilities:

Fulfillment

Utilizing our fulfillment services results in a seamless process of storing, picking, packing, and shipping of your goods to the excited end-user. We customize our fulfillment offerings to cater to your needs, making sure your costs are low and satisfaction is high.

Drop-Shipping

Need to ship to multiple locations? No problem! Let our warehouse team tackle the hassle, so you don't have to. By leveraging our drop-shipping services, you can easily expand your product offerings, streamline operations, and enhance customer satisfaction.

Kitting

At PromoCentric, we're all about elevating your branding presentation: and what better way than with a perfectly packed kit? Our kitting team created over 117,000 kits in 2022 alone, each one done with care and attention to detail.
